

Developing the music therapy profession in Scotland

presents a VOCAL WORKSHOP with

HARLEY LOUDON

MONDAY 16th MARCH 7.30pm

City of Edinburgh Methodist Church
25 Nicolson Square, Edinburgh, EH8 9BX

Tickets in advance: £15/£12 concession, available online:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/vocal-workshop-with-harley-loudon-tickets-15967204338> or £17 at the venue on the day of the event.

Cheques may be sent to: 2F2 40 Angle Park Terrace, EH11 2JR.

The workshop will involve developing and using the voice creatively and physically - so please be prepared to move, and do bring some water with you.

There will be some gypsy songs, African songs, improvisations and soundings, followed by a facilitated discussion sharing vocal techniques in the workplace. We look forward to seeing you there!

Vocalist, singer, songwriter, composer with various musicians and poets in spoken word, folk, jazz and world music before training with Nordoff-Robbins as a music therapist working with dementia, premature babies, CAMHS, pre-school early intervention family groups, primary and secondary school children and young people with severe learning difficulties and challenging behaviour.